Become a member of the International Society of Refractive Surgery (ISRS), a partner of the American Academy of Ophthalmology. ISRS is the leading organization for refractive surgeons and keeps you up-to-date on the latest clinical and research developments in refractive, cornea, cataract and lens-based surgery. Members are connected to the world's leading refractive surgeons from over 80 countries through its innovative meetings, publications and online educational tools.

Membership acceptance is subject to review and approval by the ISRS Executive Committee.

Benefits of Membership

- Subscription to the Journal of Refractive Surgery, the official publication of ISRS. The Journal is a monthly forum for original research, review and evaluation of refractive, cataract, cornea and lens-based surgical procedures. (Online subscription for Members in Training)
- Access to the online ISRS Multimedia Library providing refractive, cataract and cornea videos, presentations and conversations shared by leading surgeons from around the world.
- Reduced registration fee for the 2012 Refractive Surgery Subspecialty Day at the ISRS Annual Meeting. This innovative meeting assembles international leaders in refractive surgery, providing a forum for exchange of the latest information in the field.
- Access to refractive and cataract information on the Academy's Ophthalmic News and Education (ONE™) Network, an online resource that provides access to clinically relevant content, news and tools from a variety of trusted sources.
- Monthly clinical e-newsletter, Refractive Surgery Outlook, featuring expert opinion on the latest advances, highlights from peer-reviewed clinical journals, a calendar of events and ISRS information.
- Complimentary online listing for your practice in Find a Refractive Surgeon, a searchable online directory complete with full contact information for practicing members worldwide.
- Access to the members only content on the ISRS website, www.isrs.org, which includes the latest trends, news, presentations and articles on refractive and cataract surgery to further your knowledge and education.
- Complimentary personalized membership certificate.
- ISRS supports refractive surgery educational events around the world through international meetings with other ophthalmic societies by hosting a course or symposium.
- Members of ISRS, who are not already members of the American Academy of Ophthalmology, receive a $100 discount on the Academy's application fee. For more information and an application, go to the Academy website at www.aao.org or contact Member Services at member_services@aao.org.
